2020 Catholic Sharing Appeal

“Bring Christ to the World”

In today’s Gospel, we discover that, just as the Samaritan woman at the well, NOBODY is the same after encountering the Lord Jesus. Your support of this year’s Catholic Sharing Appeal can help bring many of our brothers and sisters who live and work in South Mississippi the opportunity to encounter Christ. Please consider a generous gift to this year’s appeal! Thank You!

All of the Knights of Columbus councils within the Diocese of Biloxi are coming together to help offset the costs of Seminarian education. We are holding a raffle throughout the entire Diocese which covers the entire southern part of the state of Mississippi. We have a grand prize of $5000, a 2nd place prize of $3000 and a 3rd place prize of $2000 to be given away on April 15th, 2020! Each council is being provided 200 tickets to sell at $25 each. All we need from you is your name phone number and $25! If each council can sell their 200 tickets, the Diocese can raise $160,000 to help offset the costs of this desperately needed education. Tickets will be sold until April 1st. All tickets will be turned over to a central point and the tickets will be combined with all others from across the Diocese. We ask that all Parishioners help the Knights of Columbus help the Diocese! Please see any member of the Knights of Columbus to purchase your ticket!

The Knights of Columbus are hosting a Fish Fry except on March 15th.

Grilled or Fried Fish or Shrimp Plate $9.00
Fish & Shrimp Combo Plate $11.00
Child Plate 10 & Under $5.00
The proceeds will benefit our Parish.

THIRST
Each time today’s Gospel story is read, I can’t help but think of the many television commercials I’ve seen depicting perspiring athletes lifting a beverage to their lips while the scorching sun beats down on them. Our culture has definite ideas about how to quench thirst. Today, those ideas are turned upside down. The Samaritan woman operates, initially, on the TV commercial level. She asks Jesus for the flowing water so that she will not have to keep coming to the well. Jesus then talks about what real thirst is, and how he, and he alone, can quench that thirst. Lent calls us to find those places deep within ourselves where we thirst. In our thirst, as did the Israelites, we cry out to God asking for springs of living water. Deep down we know

LENTEN MISSION • CHRIST’S CALL TO PERFECTION • MARCH 23RD – 25TH, 2020
ST. CHARLES BORROMEO CHURCH • PICAYUNE, MS
Greetings, dear brothers and sisters in Christ!

My name is Friar Mariano D. Veliz, O.P. I’m a priest in the Order of Preachers in the Province of St. Martin de Porres, located in the Southern United States. This Lent I will be offering a 3-day Lenten Mission at St. Charles Borromeo Church in Picayune, MS through the Dominican Rosary Apostolate, “Preach My Psalter”. The Mission will be from Monday, March 23rd through Wednesday, March 25th. The theme of the mission is, “Christ Calls His Disciples to Perfection: ‘Be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect’”. As the Divine Preacher of Truth, as Divine Truth Himself, what does this call or commandment from Christ really mean for His disciples, His imperfect disciples, in the particulars of their daily life? In my conferences, I will present the meaning of this call to perfection in the preaching of Jesus by considering Three Virtues during the Three Mission Days: Humility (Day 1), Magnanimity (Day 2) and Charity (Day 3). I hope you can come. Thank you!

In Christ with Blessed Mary,
Friar Mariano D. Veliz, O.P., Promoter of the Rosary and Preach My Psalter (frmarianovelizop@preachmypsalter.com)

“BE PERFECT, JUST AS YOUR HEAVENLY FATHER IS PERFECT.”

SAINT JOSEPH, HUSBAND OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
March 19
Joseph, someone once joked, was indeed the perfect husband: the only major character in Jesus’ story who never utters a word! But the Gospel recounts and the liturgy celebrates his silent witness of faith—filled deeds: “With a husband’s love he cherished Mary, the Virgin Mother of God; with fatherly care he watched over Jesus” (Preface of Saint Joseph, Sacramentary). Catholic devotion, therefore, hails him as patron-protector of the universal Church. Some cultures set a festive “Saint Joseph’s Table,” welcoming the poor and strangers to feast with family and friends. Tradition keeps today as the anniversary of his death, which we presume was peaceful, with Jesus and Mary present. Thus, Catholics invoke Joseph as Patron of a Happy Death. Descended from David’s house, which God finished “building” through Joseph’s provision of a home for Mary and Jesus, he was, fittingly, a carpenter by trade; thus, patron of workers. Spring, nature’s rebirth, begins between his feast and Annunciation (March 25), appropriately, since Joseph’s silent obedience and Mary’s “Let it be done to me according to your word” (Luke 1:38) usher in humanity’s spiritual rebirth.

SAINT PATRICK
March 17
Patron Saint of Engineers, Ireland, Nigeria
Legends about Patrick abound; but truth is best served by our seeing two solid qualities in him: He was humble and he was courageous. The determination to accept suffering and success with equal indifference guided the life of God’s instrument for winning most of Ireland for Christ. Details of his life are uncertain. At 16, he and a large number of his father’s slaves and vassals were captured by Irish raiders and sold as slaves in Ireland. Forced to work as a shepherd, he suffered greatly from hunger and cold. After six years Patrick escaped, probably to France, and later returned to Britain at the age of 22. His captivity had meant spiritual conversion. He may have studied at Lerins, off the French coast; he spent years at Auxerre, France, and was consecrated bishop at the age of 43. His great desire was to proclaim the good news to the Irish.
In a dream vision it seemed “all the children of Ireland from their mothers’ wombs were stretching out their hands” to him. He understood the vision to be a call to do mission work in pagan Ireland. Despite opposition from those who felt his education had been defective, he was sent to carry out the task. He went to the west and north—where the faith had never been preached—obtained the protection of local kings, and made numerous converts. Because of the island’s pagan background, Patrick was emphatic in encouraging widows to remain chaste and young women to consecrate their virginity to Christ. He ordained many priests, divided the country into dioceses, held Church councils, founded several monasteries and continually urged his people to greater holiness in Christ. He suffered much opposition from pagan druids and was criticized in both England and Ireland for the way he conducted his mission. In a relatively short time, the island had experienced deeply the Christian spirit, and was prepared to send out missionaries whose efforts were greatly responsible for Christianizing Europe. Patrick was a man of action, with little inclination toward learning. He had a rock-like belief in his vocation, in the cause he had espoused. One of the few certainly authentic writings is his Confessio, above all an act of homage to God for having called Patrick, unworthy sinner, to the apostolate. There is hope rather than irony in the fact that his burial place is said to be in County Down in Northern Ireland, long the scene of strife and violence.
